Returning citizens		Please note the following regarding shipments to China for returning Chinese Nationals POE SHANGHAI. This is applicable for returning Chinese nationals without proof of foreign residency (e.g. Green Cards). The import application of returning Chinese national with proof of foreign residency is same as foreign passport holder. If following items are included in a sea shipment, additional explanation letters and special approval from Senior customs official needs to be obtained	Effective August 1, 2015 Shanghai Customs is again applying an existing rule for returning Chinese citizens. We have been watching this carefully and can now advise that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Upon the arrival of a returning Chinese national at the Shanghai airport, they will be required to declare the value of their accompanying flight luggage at the same time as collecting the Baggage Declaration Form. It is therefore important to remind the client of this when giving advice on what will happen in Shanghai. The amount declared for the luggage will be deducted from the shipper's duty free allowance of RMB 5,000.00. We would recommend each shipper to declare a modest value at the airport in order to leave the bulk of the duty free for the HHG's shipment. If the shipper declares more than RMB 5,000.00 for his luggage, it will be subject to tax & duty and will be required to be paid at the time of entry at the airport. Previously when a shipper went to Customs to obtain The Baggage form he was not asked to declare anything. During the clearance of the HHG shipment, the duty free amount (e.g. RMB 5,000.00 minus declared luggage) will be assessed for tax and duty. This is slightly different from the existing rule which gave the returning Chinese national the benefit of duty

Antiques		Private Export of Relics earlier than 1911 will not be Allowed Outside of China The 60th reigning year of the Qianlong Emperor in the Qing Dynasty, or 1795 was the previous standard for relics being exported from China. All relics made or produced before that year were and still are prohibited from being exported. However, this standard has been changed to 1911. "1911" will replace "1795" as the new time standard for relics being exported out of China. Furthermore, for those important relics, the year limit is set to 1949; and for important relics and fine arts by the ethnic minorities, the limit is 1966. Relics restricted in this revised regulation will include porcelain ware, gold ware, silverware, copperware and some other metal wares; jade ware, lacquer ware, glassware, carvings and sculptures of all materials; furniture, handwritings, calligraphies and paintings, rubbings, books, documentations, weaves and embroideries, cultural equipment, postage stamps, currencies, appliances, handicrafts and fine arts, etc.	Any customers wishing to import in to China items of Chinese origin that could fall under the new regulations, must register them with the authorities prior to customs release. Anyone not doing so may have great difficulty in later re-exporting these items when they leave China.
