

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Used household goods and personal effects - Foreign citizens	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Photocopy of passport Application for Exemption from Customs Duty– this document is required in original and duly signed!!! Declaration from Czech company or employer or 2 other documents to prove that the client is going to reside in the Czech Republic (visa, work permit, copy of lease agreement, etc.) Power of attorney authorising the removal company to represent the shipper at the customs authorities. Inventory list In case that the client is not a citizen of the origin country - Declaration from origin employer or 2 other documents to prove that the client was residing in the origin country for at least 12 months 	Duty free. Within 12 months from importation goods may not be lent, given as security, rented out or sold without prior notification to the competent customs authorities.	English will be accepted by customs for some documents (not only Czech), for example lease contract. Household goods can be imported duty and tax free under the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the goods have been in shipper's ownership and used at shipper's former normal place of residence for at least six months prior to shipping. - the goods are intended to be used for the same purpose at his new normal place of residence. - Duty and tax relief may be granted only to persons whose normal place of residence has been outside the customs territory of the EU for a continuous period of at least 12 months prior to shipping. - Duty and tax relief shall be granted only for personal property and household goods entered to EU within 12 months from the date of establishment of a normal place of residence in EU. Application for exemption from customs duty and Authorization letter are required in original.
Used household goods and personal effects - Czech citizens returning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Photocopy of passport copy of client's Czech ID card (Občanský průkaz) Application for Exemption from Customs Duty- this document is required in original and duly signed!!! Declaration from origin employer or 2 other documents proving that the client was residing in the origin country for at least 12 months (visa, stamps in passport, copy of lease agreement, electrical bill, etc.) Power of Attorney authorising the removal company to represent the importer at the customs authorities. Inventory list 	Duty free. Within 12 months from importation goods may not be lent, given as security, rented out or sold without prior notification to the competent customs authorities	English will be accepted by customs for some documents (not only Czech), for example lease contract Household goods can be imported duty and tax free under the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the goods have been in shipper's ownership and used at shipper's former normal place of residence for at least six months prior to shipping. - the goods are intended to be used for the same purpose at his new normal place of residence. - Duty and tax relief may be granted only to persons whose normal place of residence has been outside the customs territory of the EU for a continuous period of at least 12 months prior to shipping. - Duty and tax relief shall be granted only for personal property and household goods entered to EU within 12 months from the date of establishment of a normal place of residence in EU. Application for exemption from customs duty and Authorization letter are

Updated version October 2015.
 This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to ADA Europe for this update.

All rights reserved.
 This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Personal Effects - Diplomat's removal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Photocopy of passport • Power of attorney authorising the removal company to represent the importer at the customs authorities. • Inventory lists • Statement from the Embassy confirming client's assignment in CR • Import Declaration for diplomatic goods or Vehicles (form) • Diplomatic ID card 	Duty free	required in original. Import Declaration for diplomatic goods (2 x form) and Power of Attorney are required in original
Automobiles and motorcycles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A form stating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Official/factory name and type of vehicle - Manufacturing number (VIN number) - Vintage (year when the vehicle was manufactured) - Type of fuel - Weight of the car • Invoice or other confirmation of car purchase (original & legible copy) – will be returned on shipment delivery date • Registration book of the car / Certificate of title/ (original copy) – will be returned on shipment delivery date • All the same documents as for import of household goods and personal effects (see above) 	Duty free as far as all requirements as for household goods are fulfilled. Within 12 months from importation vehicles may not be lent, given as security, rented out or sold without prior notification to the competent customs authorities	Car can be imported duty and tax free as part of HHG move under the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the vehicle has been in shipper's possession and used at his/her former normal place of residence for at least six months prior to shipping. - Is intended to be used for the same purpose at his new normal place of residence. - Duty and tax relief may be granted only to persons whose normal place of residence has been outside the customs territory of the EU for a continuous period of at least 12 months. - Duty and tax relief shall be granted only for a car entered to EU within 12 months from the date of establishment of a normal place of residence in EU. Vehicle can be sold after one year from the date of importation. NOTE: It might be a problem to register vehicles older than 8 years. Exceptions are vehicles over 30 years old which can be registered and used as old-timers.
Alcohol and cigarettes	As for removal of household goods and personal effects.	Dutiable	There is no allowance for duty and tax free import of alcohol or tobacco in unaccompanied shipments.
Animals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veterinary import permission issued by the State Vet Office in Prague, Czech Republic. 	Duty free

Updated version October 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to ADA Europe for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veterinary certificate issued by the State Vet Office in the country of the animal's origin. • International vaccination certificate.
Firearms	Document / firearms accompanying certificate / issued by the Embassy of the Czech Republic from the country the customer lives in.	Duty free (as a part of shipment with used household goods).	It is allowed temporarily to import, export or carry on the territory of the Czech Republic or transit across the territory of the Czech Republic weapons of the Categories A, B or C or ammunition for such weapons solely subject to a license. The license is issued in the form of a firearms accompanying certificate. A firearms accompanying certificate good for transit of weapons or ammunition may be issued upon request from natural persons and legal entities by embassies of the Czech Republic. In respect of natural persons and legal entities visiting the Czech Republic for the purpose of hunting or participation in marksmanship contests that hold an European gun license, also by the police units at frontier crossings. A firearms accompanying certificate needs not be submitted in respect of weapons of the Categories B and C and ammunition for such weapons, if their holders come from a Member State of the EU, and if they are holders of an European gun license issued in respect of such transferred weapon and if they can declare the purpose of their travels. Travelers from a third country who travel to a Member State of the EU, during controls at the external frontier of the EU, must submit a license issued by the appropriate authorities of each relevant Member State to whose territory or across whose territory they intend to travel carrying such weapon or ammunition.
Other goods			There may be specific customs regulations applying, therefore kindly consult your destination agent in advance for specific information.