

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Immigrants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Original passport of consignee and spouse. English packing list, without values (From O/A). Power of Attorney authorizing destination agent to clear shipment (Provided by D/A). Declaration for customs (provided by D/A) showing values of all items, giving make, serial number and appliance manufacturer's name, whether old or new (to be prepared and signed at the D/A's office). Invoices for newly purchased items (less than 12 months old). Rental contract or other proof of residence in Israel for a 1-year minimum. New Immigrant Booklet "Teudat Oleh" of consignee and spouse. 	New Immigrants are entitled to a tax free importation of household goods and personal effects. In order to utilize this privilege, consignee must have a new immigrant booklet (Teudat Oleh). Duty free entry for all personal and household goods. Electrical appliances: only one of each hh appliance permitted plus 2 computers and 2 TV's per family. Communication Equipment, Sporting Equipment and Outdoor Furniture may be subject to duties and taxes Carpets for new immigrant: Permitted duty free entry : 25% size of flat 75% if wall to wall carpeting.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consignee can immigrate from country A and import from country B. Date of arrival is the date of first entry into Israel as marked in the "Teudat Oleh" booklet issued upon arrival. Number of duty free shipments limited to three (3) within 3 years of arrival. Lease contact for flat must be minimum of one year. Shipment of a car and professional tools are not counted as one of the three shipments allowed. Expiration of rights: goods must arrive at port of entry not later than 3 years from the date of arrival. No items brought for other people are allowed.
Israeli Citizens who lived abroad less than 2 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clear copy of picture page of Israeli Passport English packing list, without values (From O/A). Power of Attorney authorizing destination agent to clear shipment (Provided by D/A). Declaration for customs (provided by D/A) showing values of all items, giving make, serial number and appliance manufacturer's name, whether old or new (to be prepared and signed at the D/A's office) Optional: EUR-1 or Certificate of Origin for newly purchased items. 	Israeli citizens who lived abroad for less than 2 years do not qualify for a tax exemption importation of personal effects/household goods. The shipment will be taxed by Israeli Customs based on its tariff (Customs duties include also VAT charged on the value and Sales Tax). If consignee did a formal export when he left Israel (e.g. via a certified International Mover or Freight Forwarder) and the Original Export Documents are found in that company's archives, than all that is on the export list that matches the import list can be imported tax free.	Consignee must obtain the papers with the ORIGINAL Customs stamp, not a copy.

Updated version November 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Mediterranean for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Israelis who lived abroad more than 2 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> English packing list, without values on it. Clear copy of picture page of consignee and spouse's passport. Clear copy of "returning Israeli" stamp page of consignee and spouse's passport. Proof of Residence in Israel. Invoices for newly purchased items (less than 12 months old). Power of Attorney authorizing destination agent to clear shipment (Provided by D/A). Declaration for customs (provided by D/A) showing values of all items, giving make, serial number and appliance manufacturer's name, whether old or new (to be prepared and signed at the D/A's office). 	If consignee is an Israeli citizen, who lived abroad more than 2 and sum of visits each year did not exceed 120 days, he/she may be eligible for 'Returning Citizens' status. Consignee must visit the customs house near his/her place of residence and bring his/her Israeli passport, spouse's passport, ID card (Teudat Zehut) and proof of residence (Rental contract, ownership contract, city tax bill etc.). Once Israeli Customs stamps the passport with 'Returning Israeli' stamp, consignee may import personal effects and household goods tax free, including 1 of each hh appliances plus 2 computers and 2 TV's per family. Some items may not be exempted at all, including Alcohol, food, Communication equipment (phones, fax machines etc.).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expiration of rights: goods must arrive at port of entry not later than 9 months from the date of arrival.
Religious individual (A-3 status) (Minister, Priest, Theological Student)	Same procedure as persons entering under B-1 status including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Status (A-3-) stamped in passport by Customs authorities Letter from place of service Bank guarantee or deposit. 		A-3 visa needs to pay a deposit or a bank guarantee, which will be released or paid back once he leaves Israel and sends the HHGs back.
Tourists (B-2)		No duty free rights. All goods imported are subject to Customs duty.
Foreign Workers (B-1 Visa) Work Visa	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> English Packing List, without values Original Passport, already stamped with B-1 Visa Israeli Customs Forms & Power of Attorney (filled in Israel) Letter from employer, confirming that 	Unlike most countries in the world, where Work Permit/Visa entitles consignee to import his personal effects tax-free, in Israel the procedure is different. Consignee's employer will have to provide a	Note: The guarantee covers Israeli Customs duties and taxes only, and does not cover other port related charges like NVOCC handling charges, cargo terminal charges and Wharfage fee.

Updated version November 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Mediterranean for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	client will be working for him in Israel. Documents Required for Clearance from consignee's EMPLOYER in Israel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ORIGINAL Bank Guarantee documents, signed by the issuing bank. 	bank guarantee in the amount of duties levied by Israeli Customs, in order to clear the shipment without paying taxes. This guarantee will have to be renewed every year and can be revoked only when goods are exported out of Israel.
Diplomats	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> English Packing List, without values Clear copy of passport Clear copy of diplomat's ID card Original tax exemption papers (Form 380) Letter of Authorization from governing diplomatic body to D/A 	Diplomats are entitled to tax-free importation of personal effects, once a tax exemption franchise is obtained by the body (e.g. embassy, consulate or organization) in which the diplomat serves. The diplomatic body must apply for a diplomatic ID card for consignee at the Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Jerusalem. Once obtained, the tax exemption is applied for at the Customs House, by presenting the bill of lading, packing list and customs forms. Once the customs broker (e.g. Destination Agent) receives the ORIGINAL tax exemption papers, the shipment can be cleared tax free.	Note: The exemption covers Israeli Customs duties and taxes only, and does not cover other port related charges like NVOCC handling charges, cargo terminal charges and wharfage fee.
Inheritances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inheritance papers issued by Israeli Court. 	No special privileges.
Tools for professional purposes	Valued packing list.		Importer must prove they are essential to his profession.
Liquors, cigarettes		Subject to payment of full duties and taxes.
Motorcars, other motor vehicles, caravans, trailers	Vehicle importing is potentially complicated and should be coordinated with DA before shipping to confirm if possible to import as there are age and other restrictions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Document proving registration in importer's name. Insurance document. Purchase invoice. Valid driver's license 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New immigrants – will pay taxes of ~ 77% of value of car plus shipping. For new immigrants- car must arrive at POE within 3 years from consignee's date of arrival. Only one car can be imported. 	All cars should comply with the Israeli Institute of standards. Shipper should check with D/A by faxing registration details of car.

Updated version November 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Mediterranean for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proof of payment
Pets	Certificate for all normal inoculations.
Firearms, ammunitions, explosives, dangerous chemicals, drugs, devices fuelled by natural gas		Prohibited.	Firearms – Special authorisation has to be applied for to Ministry of Interior prior to shipping. Gas BBQ grills require a permit from the Standards Institute.

Updated version November 2015.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Mediterranean for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a FIDI Affiliate prior to shipping.