Consignment information		All shipment must be marked on the OBL as 'Used Personal effects & Household goods' or AWB as 'Used personal effects' only. Do not declare as household goods or household effects on the AWB. Original OBL is needed if OBL is not surrendered (express released). Failure to follow the above procedures can cause serious Customs Clearance delays and result in higher import fees to the owners/shipper.
Removal goods	Shipper must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passport • Copy Thai ID card – for Thai / Air shipment only. • Non-Immigrant or Residence Visa valid for one year. • Work Permit valid for one year, if available. Origin agent must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two legible copies of packing inventory. • Original copy of OBL or airway bill. • Shipments must be marked on the OBL "Used Personal Effects" and airway bills as "Used Personal Effects" only. All shipments (except diplomatic) must be consigned to the Shipper's full name (exactly as shown in passport) Original passport and original work permit must be presented to Customs during inspection. Bond facility is not available pending issuance of work permit. Without the one-year work permit, shipment will be dutiable, only original passport is required during customs clearance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Duty free entry for used personal effects and household goods but only 1 (one) shipment by air AND 1 (one) shipment by sea only. • Household effects under 6 months in age are subject to duties. • Although the shipper may import more than one shipment, he remains subject to full import duties on the second shipment. We recommend consolidation of shipments prior to their arrival in Thailand. • Personal and household effects must be imported not earlier than one month prior to arrival and not later than six months after the arrival of the importer, but the Director General of Customs is empowered to extend the said period in such exceptional circumstances, as he deems necessary. • Shipment has to be consigned to full name of shipper c/o Removal Company's address. • Shipper does not have to be present at customs BUT his actual passport has to be presented to customs. 	Duty free entry available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Returning Thai resident who has lived abroad for more than 12 months. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Must have had their Thai passport stamped from Thailand, and arrival at destination and vice versa. ◦ Thai customs must see an Immigration entry/exit stamp in the shipper's passport. ◦ DO NOT use the electronic Auto gate channel at the airport immigration. Too frequent travelling back and forth can cause problems should Customs deem the owner to have not been permanently based in origin country. Each stay in Thailand must not be more than 3 months each time. Shipper has never imported goods into Thailand. Original passport (old passport might be needed), and original Thai ID card must be presented during the customs inspection. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foreigners holding a one-year non-immigrant B (business) visa with a valid one-year work permit at the time shipment

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Non-exempt from duty		High duties are placed on all goods not conforming to the section above. Particularly high duties apply to electrical goods, plasma/LCD TV, carpets and luxury goods. Note: Toys, baby items, PC games, toiletries, cosmetics, washing liquid & powder, foodstuff, alcohol, office items including files, bicycle, exercise equipment, sport equipment, musical instrument, medical items, i.e. blood pressure monitor, electric chair, golf set ARE DUTIABLE and will not be considered for duty exemption. Especially sending via airfreight. Customs at the airport is very strict. They are not expecting shipper to send a large used HHG via air and intend to go through the goods more thoroughly during the inspection. We recommend sending above mentioned items via sea shipment if possible. Note: Prohibited articles include firearms, ammunition, pornographic literature, short-wave radios, and medical equipment, Buddha head or parts, gold and silver. Note: Wine and spirits, foodstuff, toys, baby items, cosmetics, car seat, helmet, Buddha statue, require special import licensing and should not be included in the shipment without prior consultation. Buddha statue and Fine Art items will need to be pre-determined if these items will be allowed to import or if need to pre-register with the Fine Arts Department.
