Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
			Shippers must realise that on their door to door shipments, duties, taxes, VAT, deconsolidation fees, airport and airline handling and storage, port fees, container rental and hoisting are not included in the prepaid destination services charge. Customs clearance is normally included. The shipper must be in the country when his shipment arrives in case the customs office wants to see his passport. No values should be declared on the shipping documents nor on the certificate of use, stamped by the Venezuelan Consulate at origin.
Fumigation of wood packaging			Effective May 2, 2005 a new resolution of the Minister of Agriculture and Land states that all imports and exports containing wooden crates, lift vans, etc, have to have the Seal that certifies the treatment by Bromade Methyl (BM) or Heated Treatment (HT). Any import coming into the country without the certification will be returned to the country of origin. This norm does not apply to paper products.
